Kia Ora! I'm Sophie. I am a freelance film crew creative from NZ with a Bachelor of Creative Media Production, majoring in Film and TV Production. I have years of production experience, primarily in smaller commercial crews, and am pursuing on set crew or development/scripting roles on feature films or TV, as I thrive in hardworking, hands-on, creative and collaborative environments. I am currently based between Auckland and the Gold Coast. I have skills in producing, directing, writing, and costuming, so I am a multi-faceted crew member who can support multiple departments, and has a broad understanding of the ecosystem of filmmaking. I have experience with acclaimed Australian production companies, such as Bazmark INQ and Speech&Drama Pictures.
